The 10 Best U.S. Honeymoon Resorts of 2020

While it can be tempting to jet out of the country to a tropical destination or an exotic getaway, you don't actually have to go far to find a romantic honeymoon resort. With skiing, hiking, beach-side relaxation, and desert exploration, these resorts in the continental U.S. promise you and your partner the best ways to de-stress and bond after your wedding. Not only that, staying inside the States means that these trips will be lighter on your wallet as well.

Best Mini-Moon: Terranea, Rancho Palos Verdes, California

Located on the secluded edge of the Palos Verdes Peninsula just 16 miles south of LAX, this California beach resort is worlds away from the commotion of Los Angeles. It sits on top of a dramatic cliff, and since there isn't a public beach below the hotel, it will feel like you have the entire place to yourself—all you see is ocean, Catalina Island, and perhaps a few dolphins and whales. It's the ideal West Coast getaway if you're short on time, or if you're coming from further afield and have only a night or two to spend in LA before continuing on to Fiji or elsewhere in the South Pacific. There is an enormous 50,000 square foot spa and fitness center, which includes an oceanfront yoga studio to help you find some California zen. And with on-property activities including daily nature walks, falconry, and four heated swimming pools, the two of you are bound to have a transporting experience that feels worlds away.
