

MODERN LUXURY WEDDINGS CALIFORNIA

<http://modernluxury.com/modern-luxury-weddings-california/story/shore-things-where-youll-want-get-married-california>

Shore Things: Where You'll Want to Get Married in California

By Nadine Jolie Courtney | Photo: Fairmont photo by Julie Miko | Casa del Mar photo by André Maier Photography | December 9, 2016

Sweeping ocean views, crashing waves, natural lighting—when you've got a set designer like Mother Nature, all the extra details are icing on the cake. Deep-dive into eight five-star venues around the state with showstopping water views designed to delight.

Terranea

100 Terranea Way, Rancho Palos Verdes, 866.547.3066

about Surrounded by water on three sides, Terranea's amenities include a 50,000-square-foot spa, a nine-hole golf course, pools with ocean views, surf lessons, and eight restaurants and bars.

stats & standouts Catalina Point offers unobstructed bluffside vistas for up to 220 guests, while Ocean Lawn can accommodate 25 to 80 or 250 to 400. For larger parties, Palos Verdes Meadows hosts up to 900.

packages Wedding packages begin at $200 per person for evenings, and increase if weddings last beyond six hours. Daytime weddings start from $150 per person. Menus are completely customizable.

nearby attractions Catalina Island is just across the channel, while remote Rancho Palos Verdes itself offers hiking, horseback riding and golfing.